

Maverick

Dr. Ogden C. Page was thirty years old when he defected from Bulgaria in the summer of 1984, which was one of the darkest times of socialism and communism. He had a degree in central planning and its underlying ideology—Marxism-Leninism. Today, Bulgaria is a member of NATO and the European Union.

Capitalist

Having graduated from the prestigious Anderson School of Management at UCLA with an MBA degree in 1998, Dr. Page acquired a long list of credentials over the next two decades.

A capitalist, Dr. Page firmly believes in the free-market system. Though not perfect, capitalism is by far the most efficient and just way to structure an economy. Through risk taking and innovation, anybody can achieve personal and economic freedom.

History has convincingly rejected Karl Marx and Vladimir Ilyich Lenin. Soviet style communism starved millions, bankrupted nations, and collapsed as decisively as the Berlin Wall.

Having lived under both systems, Dr. Page firmly believes in seeking economic growth through the free-market system. He is proud to be part of our American system, where anyone with dreams and ambition can achieve great success.

Small Business Champion & Advocate

The Small Business Act states that a small business concern is “one that is independently owned and operated and which is not dominant in its field of operation.”

Dr. Page has helped hundreds start a business, stay in business, and prosper in business. His advocacy work is well known in Hollywood, CA. And remember, the last bastion of capitalism is small business. In a state where profits are privatized and big corporations’ losses are socialized, who would bail out small business?

“Can you name a country that has a flat 10 percent income tax on both personal and corporate income, and that is also running a budget surplus of 8 percent of gross domestic product (the equivalent of the United States running a budget surplus of more than $1 trillion)? The surprising answer is Bulgaria, formerly one of Europe's most backward countries.”

Tax Treaty & Protocols

Washington, DC – On December 16, 2008, the U.S. Department of the Treasury announced that a new tax treaty (and accompanying protocols) with Bulgaria entered into force December 15, 2008. This agreement is designed to avoid the possibility of double taxation and prevent fiscal evasion with respect to taxes on income for U.S. and Bulgarian firms operating in each others' countries and thus, spur international trade and investment between our countries.

The treaty and first protocol with Bulgaria was signed in Washington on February 23, 2007, and the second protocol with Bulgaria was signed in Sofia on February 26, 2008. The U.S. Senate approved the new treaty and protocols on September 23, 2008.

Visionary

In 2005, Dr. Page founded the Hollywood Business Center. In a CPA desert like Hollywood, California, the Hollywood Business Center provides an oasis for value-added solutions for a variety of financial management needs.

The Hollywood Business Center is committed to diversity and welcomes all clients regardless of ethnicity or sexual orientation. In addition, Dr. Page is a long-time advocate of environmental issues and implements a variety of eco-friendly practices in the Hollywood Business Center.

As a hero in a Hollywood movie said it:

“Welcome to Hollywood! What’s your dream? Everybody comes here; this is Hollywood, land of dreams. Some dreams come true, some don’t; but keep on dreaming—this is Hollywood. Always time to dream, so keep on dreaming.”
